Summer camps at Broken Arrow Chapel

In June, July and August Bita Hochee Summer Camps will host their annual week-long summer camps for children (ages 8-11) and youth (ages 12-19), in addition to a three-day weekend retreat for young adults (20 and 30-something year-olds). The camps and retreat will take place at Broken Arrow Chapel in Indian Wells. The costs per camper are very inexpensive: Kids Camp, $25; Youth Camp, $35; and Young Adults Retreat, $25.

The camps will kick off with Kids Camp, Monday-Friday, June 23-27. Kids Camp will be part of the “Mega Sports” program that connects sports with biblical lessons. Sports such as basketball, volleyball, baseball, soccer, cheerleading and basic sports skills for younger children are some areas covered by the sports camp program. The $25 per camper cost includes all meals and snacks, T-shirts and sleeping accommodations. Both day-campers and overnight campers are welcome. Youth Camp will be held Monday-Friday, July 21-25. The Young Adult Retreat will be Thursday-Saturday, Aug. 7, 8 and 9.

The 5.5-acre campground is located at Broken Arrow Chapel-Bita Hochee (Milepost 17 on Navajo Highway 6/ Highway 77), in Indian Wells. The campground includes fun recreational activities and sleeping accommodations in our air-conditioned bunkhouses. For more information on all three camp programs, please call or text 928-313-3997.
