

Navajo County Fair is set for September 10-13

By Linda Kor

The Navajo County Fair will be celebrating its 94th anniversary with the theme A Timeless Tradition, beginning Wednesday, Sept. 10, through Saturday, Sept. 13, with four days of rodeo, entertainment and events.

The festivities begin Wednesday night immediately following the opening ceremonies with High Lonesome on the Midway Stage and Frazier Show of America lighting up the night with their carnival and exhilarating rides. Open Class exhibits will be on display and 4-H youth will be preparing their animals for show and sale.

This year’s entertainment will include the Demolition Derby on Thursday night, followed by live concert featuring Dylan Wheeler. Friday and Saturday night will be the GCPRA Rodeo with top stock contractor Rocking B Rodeo Co., Pro Rodeo Barrel Man Kyle “Hashtag” Lamon, Tomas Garzilazo, PRCA Rodeo Announcer Jody Carper and a live video scoreboard with instant replays. Jon Wolfe will follow the rodeo live on the Main Stage on Friday Night.

The Saturday night rodeo will be followed by a live concert featuring Josh Ward.

Other events during the fair include the Little Buckaroo Rodeo, Jr. Livestock Show and Auction, and the 4-H Horse Show.

Fun at the fair includes Cow-Town, a live interactive exhibit highlighting the concept of ‘homemade’ with butter and ice cream making, crafting soap, and milking a cow by hand. Also included is a pony ride and a petting corral. Mini Golf on the Go will test skills with a top-of-the-line portable mini golf course with LED lighting for daytime or nighttime use. The Western Express Railroad will also be in operation on the Midway. Other entertainers on the Midway include The Perceptives, featuring the mentalist duo of Rich and Mariella Aimes, Dangerously Fun Juggling by James Reid and Steve’s Fun Balloon.

Solve the mystery at The Yate Gallery

Alice’s Place will be hosting The Art of Murder, a mystery benefit fundraiser beginning at 4 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 6, at the Winslow Christian School, located at 502 Airport Road in Winslow.

The evening features the events surrounding The Yate Gallery, London’s most prestigious art venue, owned by the renowned Sir Reginald Artsworth. Sir Reginald is unveiling a mysterious new masterpiece at a private gathering of the city’s elite. As the night unfolds, the celebration takes a dark turn. A valuable painting vanishes and Sir Reginald is found dead – shot with one of his own ornate pistols. Tension rises, suspicions mount and the truth begins to unravel. Someone in the gallery had a motive... and it may be you!

Tickets for the event are limited at 50, with each ticket costing $25, which must be purchased prior to the event by contacting Heather Pruett at 928-853-7133, Alice’s Place at 928-289-3003 or the Winslow Chamber of Commerce at 928-289-2434.

The event will include unraveling the mystery, appetizers, dinner and dessert, as well as a 50/50 raffle and silent auction. All proceeds will benefit Alice’s Place. Prizes will be awarded for best costume, best character, best detective and moderator choice.

PFNP headquarters restoration project to begin in September

The Painted Desert Community Complex National Historic Landmark, which includes the park’s northern visitor center and park headquarters will undergo a major multi-year restoration project starting in September.

The Painted Desert Community Complex was listed on the National Register of Historic Places in 2005 and subsequently as a National Historic Landmark in 2016, due to both its association with the National Park Service’s Mission 66 program and its prominent representation of modernist architectural work by architects Richard Neutra and Robert Alexander. The restoration project will address deferred maintenance work and correct ongoing structural deficiencies, code and accessibility concerns as well as restore select previously modified historic features.

The visitor center operations and bookstore on the north side of the park will be located at the Painted Desert Inn, 2 miles beyond the park entrance for the duration of the project.

The Painted Desert Community Complex restoration contract, funded from the Great American Outdoors Act through the National Parks and Public Land Legacy Restoration Fund, was awarded on May 27, to Stronghold Engineering, Inc, of Perris, Calif.
